DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Amendment B, submitted as Paper No. 6 on January 7, 2003, has been entered. Applicant requests cancellation of claims 1-9 and entry of new claims 10-20. However, the application as filed only contained 6 claims. Thus, claims 1-6 have been cancelled and the new claims have been renumber according to Rule 1.26 as claims 7-17.
2. Additionally, Applicant requests entry of a substitute specification, Paper No. 7 filed on January 7, 2003. However, said substitute specification has not been entered due to the lack of a marked-up version. Despite Applicant's assertion that said marked-up version is attached to the substitute specification, no such version has been found in the case file.
3. The cancellation of claims 1-6 renders moot the objections and rejections as set forth in sections 3-11 of the last Office Action.

Specification

4. This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.
5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the lack of subheadings. Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claim 1 is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 15 and 16 of copending Application No. 09/601,280. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the '280 application fully encompasses the presently claimed floor carpet installation system comprising (a) carpet substrate having a napped face surface and a loopless material back surface, (b) a micro-adhesive closure fixable to a floor and having a top surface with interlocking elements of mushroom- or plate-shape heads for interlocking with said loopless back material, wherein said heads have depressions therein containing adhesive for additional connection of the closure to the loopless back material.

8. This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

9. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

10. Claims 7-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Amended claim 7 recites the limitation “mushroom-shaped interlocking elements on a carrier, said interlocking elements having fingers with plate-shaped heads at ends thereof remote from said carrier.” Specification merely teaches the interlocking elements are either mushroom-shaped or plate-shaped, but not both. Claims 8-17 are rejected for their dependency upon claim 7.

11. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Amended claims 11 and 12 recited the limitations “loose leno weave” and “flat knit,” respectively. The specification teaches a “loose breaker fabric” or a fabric of “smooth stitches.” The terms “leno weave” and “breaker fabric” are not known in the textile arts as synonymous terms and there is nothing on record to establish their equivalency. Similarly, the terms “flat knit” and “smooth stitches” are not known in the textile arts as synonymous terms and there is nothing on record to establish their equivalency. Thus, claims 11 and 12 are rejected as containing new matter.

12. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 16 recites the limitation “rivited tuft.” The specification is silent with respect to the term “rivited tuft” and said term is not commonly known in the textile art. Thus, claim 16 is rejected as containing new matter.

13. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

14. Claims 7, 11, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

15. Claim 7 is indefinite because it is unclear how the interlocking elements can be both mushroom-shaped and plate-shaped simultaneously.

16. Claim 11 is rejected for the use of the phrase “loose leno weave.” The term “loose” is a relative term which is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

17. Claim 16 is indefinite because it is unclear what the scope of “rivited tuft” is.

Conclusion

18. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
